

NAME:

DATE:

CLASS:

Winter Dreams Enrichment Activity

PART I. Literary Analysis- Characterization: Follow the directions as stated

1. Cite 2 pieces of evidence from the story that reveal Dexter's motivation to be successful in the chart below

	TEXTUAL EVIDENCE
Evidence #1 Page #
Evidence #2 Page #

2. Answer the following two questions in complete sentences

(a) What need drives Judy?

(b) For what does she yearn or desire?

3. Judy tells Dexter that she cannot be happy. Cite two (2) pieces of textual evidence as examples of her behavior contributing to her unhappiness in the chart below

	TEXTUAL EVIDENCE
Evidence #1 Page #
Evidence #2 Page #

PART II. F. Scott Fitzgerald's American Dream

Critics have said that Fitzgerald's vision of that dream is conflicted, or divided. Many of Fitzgerald's stories embody the author's fascination with and growing distrust of America's wealthy society in the 1920's.

DIRECTIONS: Answer the following questions about Fitzgerald's American Dream in complete sentences

1. (a) How do you think Fitzgerald defines the American Dream? (1 sentence)

(b) Do you agree with him? Explain. (3 sentences)

2. In the chart below cite textual evidence of how of Dexter and Judy reflect Fitzgerald's complex views of material wealth and social status

Dexter	Judy
EV. of material wealth	EV. of material wealth
EV. of social status	EV. of social status

NAME:

DATE:

CLASS:

Winter Dreams Open Book Quiz

DIRECTIONS: Identify the letter of the choice that best answers the question

1. What effect does Judy's changing personality have on Dexter in "Winter Dreams"?

- A. It makes him forget about her.
- B. It makes him work harder.
- C. It makes him fascinated with her.
- D. It makes him think she is ill.

2. In "Winter Dreams," what conclusion can be drawn after Dexter sees Judy for the first time?

- A. Judy will learn to be a good golfer.
- B. Judy will be important to him.
- C. Judy will become his wife.
- D. Judy will ask Dexter to caddy.

3. In "Winter Dreams," what conclusion can be drawn about Judy based on her behavior toward the men on the golf course?

- A. She doesn't care whom she hurts.
- B. She wants to improve her golf game.
- C. She takes responsibility for herself.
- D. She hopes to meet Dexter again.

4. In "Winter Dreams," how does Judy appear when she refuses to marry a poor man?

- A. She seems friendly.
- B. She seems small-minded.
- C. She seems religious.
- D. She seems unhappy.

5. Why does Dexter quit his caddying job in "Winter Dreams"?

- A. He is thinking about Judy.
- B. He is going to study instead.
- C. He wants to be wealthy.
- D. He is bored by the work.

6. Why does Dexter become engaged to Irene Scheerer in "Winter Dreams"?

- A. He wants to share in her wealth.
- B. He wants a more steady life.
- C. He no longer loves Judy Jones.
- D. He wants to make Judy jealous.

7. In "Winter Dreams," what conclusion can be drawn about Dexter as he weeps at the end of the story?

- A. He has a difficult time with grief.
- B. He has lost the dreams he once had.
- C. He wishes he had never met Judy.
- D. He does not want to grow old.

8. What is a theme of "Winter Dreams"?

- A. Life without dreams is unfulfilling.
- B. Physical beauty is unimportant.
- C. Dreams can be disappointing.
- D. Living for love is all important.