

Chapter One

LITERARY TERMS: Be able to define each term and apply each term to the novella.

parable _____

conflict _____

internal conflict _____

external conflict _____

characterization _____

direct characterization _____

indirect characterization _____

Enrichment Activity 1: Characterization

DIRECTIONS: Identify an example from the text of Chapter 1 of direct & indirect characterization for each character below

CHARACTER NAME	DIRECT CHARACTERIZATION	INDIRECT CHARACTERIZATION
Keno
Juana
Coyotito
The Doctor

The Pearl

Chapter 1 Guided Reading Questions

1. Describe/identify three (3) of the sounds Kino heard when he first wakes up.
2. Find and quote the sentence that tells what the Song of the Family means to Kino.
3. What terrible thing happened to Coyotito?
4. Describe/identify two (2) things Kino did to the Scorpion?
5. What did Juana do to Coyotito to help him?
6. Why was it such a remarkable thing that Juana wanted the doctor for the baby?
7. What did the beggars know about the doctor?
8. How had those of the doctor's race treated the Indians for four hundred years?
9. What did the doctor tell his servant to say?
10. How did Kino react to what the servant said?

Chapter 1 Problematic Situation

Congratulations! You have just won $50 million dollars in the State Lottery! The whole town—the entire state—is sharing in our excitement. News of your lucky win is spreading like wildfire! Explain how this money will affect your life by answering the questions below.

1. What do you plan to do with your newly acquired wealth?

2. What types of problems might you have because of your wealth?

3. How do you think your friends will treat you now?

4. How do you think people in general will treat you?

5. Describe any “good” your wealth might bring.

6. Describe any “evil” your wealth might bring.

7. How do you think your wealth will change you socially, emotionally, and mentally?
